You Can Still Run a Viable Business as Costs Rise

“Certain school budgets are ring-fenced, they are protected. An example is the Primary PE Premium. This has to be used for enriching the primary PE curriculum and a big aspect of that is funding external providers to come in and facilitate that for the class teachers.” - Cerys Keneally, Trainer and Speaker in the Kids Activity Industry.

Finding the balance between running a viable business and supporting kids to have access to your activities can be tricky. But it is achievable!
